

STINGER HOCKEY

March 3, 1986

STINGERS WIN PROVINCIAL HOCKEY TITLE

The Concordia University Stingers women's hockey team won the Provincial championship on the weekend in Drummondville by defeating Toulouse 3-2 in the title game. Janice McDougall, Jackie Montpetit and Debbie Gill scored to lead the Stingers to their first Provincial win.

Concordia won four preliminary games before advancing to the final beating Toulouse 2-1; Sherbrooke 2-1; Laval 3-2; and Granby 3-1.

Concordia will now go against John Abbott in the Quebec University best of three championship series beginning Thursday night (March 6) at Concordia. Game time is 8:30 p.m. The stingers finished first in the regular season while John Abbott was second. The Islanders advanced to the final by defeating the McGill Martlets 2 games to 1 in the semi-final.

-30-